

Supplementary Fig. S2. Silhouette scores for K-means clustering of principal component analysis of common historic clusters percentage data. When the number of clusters is three, the silhouette score reaches its highest point, indicating that three is the optimal number of clusters for K-means.